

31. (New) A method as claimed in claim 1, wherein said setting includes subjecting the film to a hydrogen-containing plasma to remove at least one of H₂O and OH from the film with the carbon-containing groups remaining therein.

32. (New) A method as claimed in claim 13, wherein said setting includes annealing the film to remove at least one of H₂O and OH from the film with the carbon-containing groups remaining therein.

*B1
Coral*
33. (New) A method as claimed in claim 13, wherein said setting includes subjecting the film to a hydrogen-containing plasma to remove at least one of H₂O and OH from the film with the carbon-containing groups remaining therein.

34. (New) A method as claimed in claim 26, wherein said setting includes annealing the film to remove at least one of H₂O and OH from the film with the carbon-containing groups remaining therein.

35. (New) A method as claimed in claim 26, wherein said setting includes subjecting the film to a hydrogen-containing plasma to remove at least one of H₂O and OH from the film with the carbon-containing groups remaining therein.